The musical score is written on four staves. The notation consists of diamond-shaped notes on a five-line staff, with some notes having stems. The text is written in a Gothic script below the staves. The first staff begins with a C-clef and a key signature of one flat. The second staff begins with a C-clef. The third staff begins with a C-clef. The fourth staff begins with a C-clef. The text is divided into four lines, each corresponding to a staff. The first line of text is "O bone Iesu o bone Iesu & dulcis spes animæ me-". The second line is "æ animæ meæ & dulcis spes animæ meæ ape-". The third line is "ri cor meum ad vulnera tua .ñj. ut quantū me". The fourth line is "diligas cognos-".

Handwritten musical score on three staves. The notation is a form of early printed music, possibly mensural notation, with diamond-shaped notes and vertical stems. The lyrics are in Latin. The first staff begins with a clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The second and third staves also begin with a clef and a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are written below the staves, with some words appearing on the line between staves.
